CHAIRMAN'S STATEMENT

The operation of Prosper Construction Holdings Limited (“Company”) and its subsidiaries (together, the “Group”) during the year ended 31 December 2017 (“Year 2017”) largely followed the path of the “One Belt One Road” (“OBOR”) strategy promulgated by the Chinese government. To a large extent, the development of the Group’s venture along the OBOR region was boosted by the Company’s listing on Main Board of The Hong Kong Stock Exchange Company Limited back in July 2016; the proceeds from placing of shares afforded the Group to build a more comprehensive collection of vessels and efficient equipment to take on marine engineering business opportunities presented by the OBOR policy.

Most notably, the Group was contracted for the hiring of a fleet of marine engineering vessels and related equipment for deployment to a project in Pakistan, which has since become the second largest revenue contributor to the Group for Year 2017. I take pleasure to report that our fleet of vessels and equipment deployed to Pakistan demonstrated high technical competence and efficiency and as a result, the Group has received a number of invitations to tender for marine engineering projects at nearby locations. We are in the process of assessing such new business opportunities with regard to commercial viability, compliance requirements and country specific risks, amongst others, and shall proceed cautiously with selected projects.

In addition, the Group has established a business presence in Malaysia in Year 2017 through a newly set up local subsidiary to undertake a dredging project. Although the scale of the dredging project in Malaysia has been reduced from the original contract sum as a result of variations in the development project of our customer as a whole, the Malaysian subsidiary still serves as one of the Group’s foothold in the OBOR region and a showcase for the Group’s ability to perform, as well as our adaptability and responsiveness.

Looking ahead, the Group will actively pursue opportunities along the OBOR region. At the same time, we remain optimistic on the marine construction market in Hong Kong and Macao, particularly in view of the demand for land reclamation driven by population and economic growth.

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

Business Review

Major projects

During the year ended 31 December 2017 (“Year 2017”), the Group derived the majority of its revenue from its two projects in Macao and successfully established revenue source at two new geographic locations, namely Pakistan and Malaysia. Majority of projects in Hong Kong and Indonesia had either been completed or already progressed to the later stage by end of the year ended 31 December 2016 (“Year 2016”) and did not contribute substantial revenue to the Group for the Year 2017.

A breakdown of the Group’s revenue by geographic location and major projects for the Year 2017 is set out in the table below.

	Revenue recognised in Year 2017 HK$’million	Contribution to total revenue	Current status
Macao
EPC contract for electricity generation facility	165.0	26.0%	Ongoing and expecting completion in year 2019.
Land reclamation	107.5	17.0%	Site work completed in October 2017 and in preparation of final certification account.

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

Outlook and prospects

The status of the Group's key projects on hand as at 31 December 2017 is as below.

	Location	Estimated remaining contract sum HK$ million	Expected time of completion
Project(s) already commenced as at 31 December 2017
Hiring of vessels and engineering equipment	Pakistan	186.9	Q2/2018
EPC contract for an electricity generation facility	Macao	479.9	Q2/2019
Pier Construction	Hong Kong	37.8	Q4/2018
Project(s) commencing or newly awarded in 2018
Marine disposal of excavated materials	Hong Kong	16.9	Q4/2018
Vessel hiring for transportation	Southeast Asia	27.5	Q4/2018

In addition to the above key projects on hand, the Group is negotiating and/or in process of bidding for a number of sizeable potential projects, including one project in Hong Kong with expected contract sum of over HK$100 million and three projects in Southeast Asia with expected contract sum ranging from over US$40 million to US$80 million each. The Group contemplated on a public private partnership project in the Shandong province of the PRC during Year 2017, but subsequently decided not to proceed further as the nature and business mode of the project was not entirely compatible with the Group's present operation.

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

Financial Review

Revenue

A breakdown of the Group's revenue from major projects and by geographic location is set out in the section headed "Business Review" above. The Group's revenue from Macao increased by approximately HK$121.4 million for the Year 2017 as a result of the EPC contract for an electricity generation facility which commenced during year. However, the progress of the said EPC project has been slowed down in the second half of 2017 as a result of certain change in design for the project; the Group and the customer have entered into variation contracts in the fourth quarter of 2017 and works on the project is expected to resume shortly.

Furthermore, the Group established a new stream of revenue from leasing of vessels to the contractor of a marine engineering project in Pakistan, which brought in revenue of approximately HK$145.4 million for the Year 2017. Marine construction activities in Hong Kong gradually picked up during the Year 2017 with the launch of a few public sector projects and the revenue from Hong Kong projects increased by HK$47.1 million to HK$112.9 million for the Year 2017, contributing to approximately 17.8% of the Group's total revenue. On the other hand, substantially all the Group's projects in Indonesia having been completed by mid of the Year 2017, resulting in a drop of approximately HK$355.7 million in revenue from Indonesia. Overall, the Group recorded revenue of approximately HK$633.3 million for the Year 2017, representing a decline of HK$25.6 million or 3.9% from the Year 2016.

Cost of sales and gross profit

The Group recorded a slight increase in cost of sales for the Year 2017 despite a drop in revenue, leading to a decrease in gross profit by HK$30.3 million; the gross profit margin for the Year 2017 declined to 14.9% as compared to that of 18.9% for the Year 2016. The decrease in gross profit and margin was attributable to the change in the mix of the Group's projects and delay in progress of certain projects during the Year 2017. The decrease in revenue from Indonesia projects, which generally would yield higher profit margin than those in Hong Kong and Macao due to less intense competition and higher level of contingencies allowed by customer, led to a decline in gross profit margin for the Year 2017. In addition, both of the Group's projects in Macao experienced delay during the Year 2017 owing to external factors, resulting in additional overhead and fixed costs, such as vessels and equipment rental, which hampered profitability of the projects. Meanwhile, the profit margin for the Pakistan vessel leasing is more favourable than the Group's other projects due to less intense competition in the market.

Other administrative expenses

The amount of staff cost and office overhead increased by approximately HK$0.6 million, which is mainly attributable to the increase in headcount and increase in directors' remuneration following the listing of the Company's shares (the "Listing") on The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited (the "Stock Exchange") in July 2016. Professional fees for the Year 2017 decreased by approximately HK$2.4 million as some of the fees incurred in the Year 2016 were non-recurring in nature. Overall, the total other administrative expenses for the Year 2017 remained comparable to that for the Year 2016.

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

Income tax expense

The decrease in income tax expense for the Year 2017 was attributable to (i) the rise in income from Macao, where generally carried a lower effective tax burden than Indonesia for the Group; (ii) the substantial decline in income from Indonesia; (iii) the increase in rental income sourced from overseas location where either the applicable tax jurisdiction provided for favourable tax treatment or the Group's customer as lessee had agreed to take up the tax liability for the lessor.

Profit for the year

The Group's profit for the year from operation is analysed below.

	2017 HK$'000	2016 HK$'000
Profit before income tax	67,177	82,085
Effects of non-recurring items:
– professional fees incurred for the Listing	–	14,896
Profit before income tax on normalised basis	67,177	96,981
Income tax expense	(2,707)	(12,636)
Profit for the year on normalised basis	64,470	84,345
Net profit margin	10.2%	12.8%

The factors affecting the Group's profit margin for the Year 2017 are set out under the "cost of sales and gross profit" paragraph above.

Plant and equipment

The Group acquired 10 units of vessels and 18 units of machinery and equipment for a total consideration of HK$87.8 million during the Year 2017 to facilitate its new project in Macao and its vessels and equipment leasing operations. As at 31 December 2017, the Group owned a total of 47 units of marine vessels and 74 units of machinery and equipment.

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

Trade and retention receivables

The Group's trade and retention receivables increased to HK$309.6 million as at 31 December 2017 (31 December 2016: HK$183.5 million), which mainly comprised of receivables for works on projects already completed and pending settlement of final account. The increase in trade and retention receivables balances during the Year 2017 was attributable to (i) rental in arrears for leasing of vessels and equipment amounting to HK$63.9 million, which has been substantially received subsequent to the end of the financial year; and (ii) the completion of the relatively sizeable cement grinding project in Indonesia. It is not unusual for project final account to take up to one year or more for settlement in the industry; there is presently no indication of possible default on any of the Group's receivable balances.

Amount due to customers for contract works

The Group's amounts due to customer for contract work increased to HK$96.7 million as at 31 December 2017, which was mainly attributable to the electricity generation facility project in Macao; the project received a significant amount of contract sum for preliminary stage, for which the associated costs would incur at a later stage and was accounted for as amounts due to customers for contract work.

Liquidity, Capital Structure and Gearing

The Group maintained a healthy liquidity position with net current asset balance and net cash position of approximately HK$286.8 million (31 December 2016: HK$316.0 million) and HK$59.9 million (31 December 2016: HK$182.9 million) respectively as at 31 December 2017. The Group's gearing ratio (calculated by dividing total debts by total equity) as at 31 December 2017 was 34.3% (31 December 2016: 14.7%); the rise in gearing during the Year 2017 was due to the (i) payment of a final dividend for the Year 2016; (ii) loans taken out to finance for acquisition of vessels, machinery and equipment; and (iii) drawdown of additional bank borrowings to facilitate business expansion in general. The maturity and interest rate profile of the Group's borrowings are set out in note 22 to the consolidated financial statements.

Foreign Exchange

Operations of the Group was mainly conducted in Hong Kong dollars ("HK$"), Macao Patacas ("MOP"), Chinese Renminbi ("RMB"), United States dollars ("US$") (together, the "Major Currencies"), Malaysian Ringgit ("MYR") and Indonesian Rupiahs ("IDR"). The Group did not adopt any hedging policy and the Directors consider that the exposure to foreign exchange risks can be mitigated by using the Major Currencies (i) as principal currencies in the Group's contracts with customers; and (ii) to settle payments with its suppliers and operating expenses where possible. In the event that settlement from the Group's customer is received in MYR, IDR or a currency other than the Major Currencies, such currency will be retained for payment of operating expenditures only as required and the remaining foreign currency will be converted to HK$ or US$ promptly.

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

Capital Expenditures and Commitments

The Group generally finances its capital expenditures by cash flows generated from its operation and long-term bank borrowings. The net proceeds from the Listing provided an additional source of funds to meet the Group's capital expenditure plan, out of which a sum of approximately HK$147.2 was allocated for use in acquisition of vessels and equipment.

During the year ended 31 December 2017, the Group invested approximately HK$67.2 million in acquisition of vessels and approximately HK$20.6 million in machinery and equipment, among others.

The Group's fleet of vessels for marine construction works grew by 10 units during the Year 2017 to a total of 47 units as at 31 December 2017, with order placed for 1 further vessel which is yet to be delivered.

The Group's committed orders for capital equipment as at 31 December 2017 amounted to approximately HK$10.4 million and it is intended that such purchases will be financed by bank borrowings.

Use of Proceeds

The net proceeds from the Listing was approximately HK$163.5 million, which was different from the estimated net proceeds of HK$190.0 million as disclosed in the prospectus of the Company dated 30 June 2016 ("Prospectus"). The difference of HK$26.5 million has been adjusted in the same manner and in the same proportion to the use of proceeds as shown in the Prospectus. The net proceeds raised by the Group from the Listing has been fully utilised as at 31 December 2017 in the following manner.

	Adjusted use of proceeds HK$'million	Utilised up to 31 December 2017 HK$'million
Acquisition of vessels and equipment	147.2	147.2
General working capital	16.3	16.3
	163.5	163.5

The Group adopted a manual of policies and procedures to provide guidance on compliance with internal control and risk management in various operational and management functions, including but not limited to project tendering, procurement, financial reporting, treasury and risk management etc.

The Company has not established a separate internal audit department; however, procedures are in place to provide adequate resources and qualified personnel to carry out the duties of the internal audit function, including annual review of the effectiveness of risk management and internal control. The Company has engaged an external independent consultant to conduct a review on the internal control system of the Group during the Year and to report their findings to the risk management committee and the Board. The review scope for the Year covered management accounting information system, financial statement reporting, and the purchase, procurement and expenditure cycle.

Based on review and procedures conducted, the Board considers that the Group's risk management and internal control systems are effective and adequate. However, the risk management and internal control systems of the Group are designed to manage rather than to eliminate the risk of failure to achieve business objectives, and can only provide reasonable but not absolute assurance against material misstatement or loss.

The Board may, at its absolute discretion, grant options pursuant to the Share Option Scheme to any directors or employees of the Company or its subsidiaries and any other persons (including customer, supplier, adviser or consultant of the Group) on the basis of the Board's opinion as to the grantee's contribution to the development and growth of the Group.

An option may be accepted by a participant within 21 days from the date of the offer of grant of the option and may be exercised at any time during a period to be determined and notified by our Directors to each grantee, but such period shall end in any event not later than 10 years from the date of grant of the option. A nominal consideration of HK$1 is payable on acceptance of the grant of an option.

Related Party Transactions

Related party transactions entered into by the Group during the year ended 31 December 2017 are disclosed in note 26 to the financial statements, which included certain transactions in the section headed “Continuing Connected Transactions” below that constituted continuing connected transactions for which the disclosure requirements under Chapter 14A of the Listing Rules have been complied with.

Continuing Connected Transactions

During the year ended 31 December 2017, the Group had carried out the following non-exempt continuing connected transactions.

Vessel chartering framework agreements

The Group entered into a vessel chartering framework agreement (“Framework Agreement”) with Shenzhen Changsheng Marine Engineering Limited* (深圳長盛海事工程有限公司) (“Shenzhen Changsheng”), a connected party, on 18 March 2016 for chartering of vessels. Having considered new marine-based projects secured and/or under negotiation by the Group, the Board expected that the number and duration required of vessels to be chartered by the Group from Shenzhen Changsheng will increase and the annual caps for transactions under the Framework Agreement would be insufficient to meet such demand. On 18 July 2017, the Group entered into a new vessel chartering framework agreement (“New Framework Agreement”) with increased annual caps, and simultaneously terminated the Framework Agreement. Particulars of the Framework Agreement and the New Framework Agreement are set out below.

Framework Agreement	New Framework Agreement
Date: 18 March 2016	18 July 2017
Charter period: 18 March 2016 to 31 December 2017	18 July 2017 to 31 December 2019
Terminated: 18 July 2017	N/A
Parties:
(i) Prosper Construction Group Limited (“Prosper BVI”)	(as charterer for and on behalf of the Group)
(ii) Shenzhen Changsheng	(as owner)

DIRECTORS' REPORT

Connected relationship:

Prosper BVI is a wholly owned subsidiary of the Company.

Shenzhen Changsheng is owned as to 20% by executive Director Mr. Cui Qi ("Mr. Cui") and the remaining 80% by a company which is owned as to 90% by Mr. Cui and 10% by the spouse of Mr. Cui.

Transaction:

The Group will charter vessels from Shenzhen Changsheng during the respective charter period. Prosper BVI has an option to renew the framework agreement for a further period of three years, and for each exercise of a renewal option by Prosper BVI, Shenzhen Changsheng will be deemed to have granted a new option to Prosper BVI for a further extension of three years on terms to be negotiated between the parties on a fair and reasonable basis and subject to the requirements under the Listing Rules.

During the term of the respective framework agreement, members of our Group may enter into individual agreements with Shenzhen Changsheng in respect of the chartering of vessels subject to terms and conditions in compliance with those of the respective framework agreement.

Reasons for the transaction:

The number of vessels owned by our Group is inadequate to support the Group's project in Macao, and the Framework Agreement allows our Group to deploy vessels owned by Shenzhen Changsheng to our marine construction projects in Macao in an efficient and cost-effective manner. Given that it is our Group's strategy to expand our business in Macao, the chartering of vessels from Shenzhen Changsheng is beneficial to our Group and allows us to undertake an increasing number of marine construction projects in Macao in future.

The number of vessels currently owned by the Group that are available for imminent deployment outside of Hong Kong is inadequate to support the Group's demand for vessels under its upcoming projects, including but not limited to a new project in Macao secured by the Group during the year 2017. The New Framework Agreement allows the Group to deploy vessels to its marine construction projects in an efficient and cost-effective manner, without needing to resort to chartering vessels from other third party owners.

The Directors consider that the chartering of vessels from Shenzhen Changsheng pursuant to the New Framework Agreement is beneficial to the Group's expansion strategy and allows the Group to undertake an increasing number of marine construction projects in future.

Annual cap:

Year ending 31 December 2016: HK$15,360,000

Year ending 31 December 2017: HK$3,960,000

Year ending 31 December 2017: HK$15,660,000
(inclusive of the annual cap for the year ending 31 December 2017 under the Framework Agreement)

Year ending 31 December 2018: HK$22,300,000

Year ending 31 December 2019: HK$22,300,000

Actual transaction amount:

Year ended 31 December 2017: HK$1,575,000
(up to the date of termination)

Year ended 31 December 2017: HK$8,120,000
(inclusive of the transactions for the year ended 31 December 2017 under the Framework Agreement)

Contractual arrangements (“Contractual Arrangements”)

Background and reasons for the Contractual Arrangements:

Pursuant to Indonesia law, the maximum foreign ownership in a company engaging in the construction of harbour/port is limited to 67%. The Group has 67% shareholding interest in each of the two subsidiaries in Indonesia, namely PT. Indonesia Engineering (“PTIR”) and PT. Hongkong River Engineering Indonesia (“PTHKRE”). The remaining 33% of the shareholding interest in PTIR and PTHKRE are held by Johannes Wargo and Harris respectively, both of them are Indonesian citizens and independent third party of the Group except for their involvement in the Contractual Arrangements.

To consolidate control over and derive the economic benefits from the remaining 33% of the shareholding interest in each of PTIR and PTHKRE, the Group has, through its subsidiary Hong Kong River Engineering Company Limited (“HKR”), entered into the Contractual Arrangements with Johannes Wargo and Harris.

DIRECTORS' REPORT

Risks associated with the Contractual Arrangements:

In the event of change in relevant laws and regulations in Indonesia in the future, there is no assurance that the Contractual Arrangements will be considered to be in compliance with the then prevailing laws and regulations; in which case, the Contractual Arrangements may become unenforceable and the Group may be subject to potential losses.

To mitigate such risks, each of the Johannes Wargo and Harris has irrevocably appointed HKR to act as his attorney to exercise his rights in connection with the matters concerning his rights as a shareholder of PTIR and PTHKRE respectively, including the rights to vote in a shareholders' meeting, sign minutes and to sell his shares. The Group also closely monitors the amount of assets being retained in Indonesia to limit the exposure to potential losses. The amount of revenue derived by the Group through the Contractual Arrangements for the year ended 31 December 2017 amounted to approximately HK$28.5 million.

The Contractual Arrangements comprised the following documents.

1. PTIR Loan Agreements

HKR, as lender, and Johannes Wargo, as borrower, entered into a loan agreement on 5 October 2015 and an amendment and restatement of loan agreement on 5 May 2016, pursuant to which HKR agreed to provide a loan ("PTIR Loan") in the sum of IDR1,211,496,000 to Johannes Wargo to acquire 1,320 shares in PTIR ("Johannes Shares"). The PTIR Loan was secured by the Johannes Shares pursuant to the PTIR Pledge of Shares Agreements (as defined below). The PTIR Loan has a term of 10 years and will be automatically renewed upon expiration and shall be due and payable only on demand made at any time by HKR at its sole discretion. No prepayment of the PTIR Loan in whole or in part is permitted at any time during the term of the PTIR Loan Agreements.

Johannes Wargo also undertook not to do any act or sign any documents which may limit the rights of HKR under the PTIR Pledge of Shares Agreements or diminish the value of the Johannes Shares.

3. PTIR PoA for Selling Shares

Johannes Wargo on 5 October 2015 appointed HKR as his attorney to (i) sell, assign, transfer or otherwise deal with the Johannes Shares; (ii) receive the proceeds of the sale of Johannes Shares; and (iii) represent Johannes Wargo in all matters pertaining to the sale or transfer of the Johannes Shares.

4. PTIR PoA to Vote

Johannes Wargo on 5 May 2016 ("PTIR PoA to Vote") appointed HKR as his attorney to (i) attend all general meetings of shareholders of PTIR; (ii) exercise all voting rights with respect to the Johannes Shares; (iii) sign any shareholders resolutions; and (iv) generally exercise all rights and privileges and perform all duties which may be necessary in relation to the Johannes Shares.

5. PTIR Assignment of Dividends Agreements

Johannes Wargo, as assignor, and HKR, as assignee, entered into an assignment of rights to dividends agreement on 5 October 2015 and an amendment and restatement of assignment of rights to dividends agreement on 5 May 2016, pursuant to which Johannes Wargo assigned and transferred all his rights and interests in all dividends or other income paid or payable by PTIR with respect to the Johannes Shares to HKR during the term of the PTIR Loan.

6. PTHKRE Loan Agreements

HKR, as lender, and Harris, as borrower, entered into a loan agreement on 16 November 2015 and an amendment and restatement of loan agreement on 5 May 2016, pursuant to which HKR agreed to provide a loan ("PTHKRE Loan") in the sum of IDR1,584,000,000 to Harris to acquire 132,000 shares in PTHKRE ("Harris Shares"). The PTHKRE Loan was secured by the Harris Shares pursuant to the PTHKRE Pledge of Shares Agreements (as defined below). The PTHKRE Loan has a term of 10 years and will be automatically renewed upon expiration and shall be due and payable only on demand made at any time by HKR at its sole discretion. No prepayment of the PTHKRE Loan in whole or in part is permitted at any time during the term of the PTHKRE Loan Agreements.

11. Spouse Undertakings

The spouse of Harris, Mrs. Christina, signed an irrevocable undertaking on each of 16 November 2015 and 5 May 2016, pursuant to which she undertook that (i) she has confirmed her approval for Harris to enter into the PTHKRE Loan Agreements, PTHKRE Pledge of Shares Agreements, PTHKRE Assignment of Dividends Agreements, PTHKRE PoA for Selling Shares and PTHKRE PoA to Vote; (ii) she will refuse and will not claim the inheritance of Harris specifically related to the Harris Shares and all rights attached to them; and (iii) she will agree to waive any rights to claim the Harris Shares. Johannes Wargo has confirmed on 5 October 2015 that he did not have any legal spouse, accordingly, no spouse consent and undertaking was required for him for his entering into the documents in relation to the Contractual Arrangements.

During the year ended 31 December 2017, there was no new contract entered into, renewed or reproduced in relation to the Contractual Arrangements under cloned arrangement as set out in the Company's prospectus ("Prospectus") dated 30 June 2016. Key Audit Matters

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgment, were of most significance in our audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the consolidated financial statements as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters.

Key audit matters identified in our audit are summarised as follows:

- Accounting for construction contracts – estimated costs and profit recognition
- Impairment of trade and retention receivables

Key Audit Matters	How our audit addressed the Key Audit Matters
Accounting for construction contracts – estimated costs and profit recognition Refer to Note 2.12 in the summary of significant accounting policies, Note 4(a), Note 5 and Note 16 to the consolidated financial statements. For the year ended 31 December 2017, segment results from marine construction works amounted to HK$32,107,000. The recognition of revenue on construction contracts is based on the stage of completion of contract activity by reference to work performed at balance sheet date as a percentage of the total contract value. Recognition of profit on contracts is based on the recognised revenue and estimates of budgeted gross profit as well as the expected recovery of costs arising from additional work performed throughout the contracts.	Our procedures in relation to management's accounting for percentage of completion of construction work, estimated costs and profit recognition of construction contracts included: <ul style="list-style-type: none">– We obtained an understanding and tested the key controls over the budgetary process.– We compared the historical actual gross profit margin to those budgeted to assess the quality of management budgetary process.– We inspected material marine construction contracts of the Group for agreed contract sum and variations, if any.– We checked the stage of completion to the external architects' certificates or invoices to customers, where applicable; and tested, on a sample basis, the revenue recognition based on percentage of completion and the calculations of contract costs and gross profits.

Key Audit Matters	How our audit addressed the Key Audit Matters
Profit recognition requires significant time and resources to audit due to the magnitude as well as the judgement and estimates involved.	<ul style="list-style-type: none">– We selected, on a sample basis, contracts to examine management's budget of the cost components, such as costs of materials, subcontracting fees and labour costs, etc. We compared the budgeted component cost to supporting documents including but not limited to invoices, price quotation and rate of labour costs.– For each selected contract, we compared, by cost component, the actual cost incurred up to year end to the budgeted cost and obtained explanation from management for any material variation.– We discussed with the Group's quantity surveyors and project managers about the status of the projects, to identify any variations of contracts and claims, and to obtain explanations for fluctuations in margins and changes in budget as well as the expected recovery of variations. We also inspected the correspondence with customers and sub-contractors and the minutes of management's internal meetings, on a sample basis, for corroboration of their explanations.– For projects with potential dispute with customers, we obtained written opinion from the Group's external legal adviser. We enquired their work performed and discussed with them the basis in concluding the minimum amount the Group is able to realise from the projects. We tested and checked relevant evidence including agreements and correspondence with customers and sub-contractors. We found no material issue in relation to the application of judgement and estimates adopted by management in determining the estimated costs and profit recognition of construction contracts.

Key Audit Matters	How our audit addressed the Key Audit Matters
Impairment of trade and retention receivables Refer to Note 2.8 in the summary of significant accounting policies, Note 4(d) and Note 15 to the consolidated financial statements. As at 31 December 2017, trade and retention receivables of the Group amounted to HK$309,571,000, which accounted for approximately 35.8% of the Group's total assets. No provision for impairment of trade receivables has been made as at 31 December 2017. Management determined the provision for impairment of trade and retention receivables based on periodic credit monitoring, which included the review of customers' credit worthiness, collection of outstanding balances and age of the outstanding receivables. If there is indicator that the receivables are impaired, management would make specific provision against individual balances with reference to the recoverable amount. We focused on this area due to the magnitude of the receivables and the estimation and judgement involved in the determination of the recoverable amounts of trade and retention receivables.	Our audit procedures in relation to management's assessment on recoverability of trade receivables included: <ul style="list-style-type: none">– We understood and validated the credit control procedures performed by management, including its procedures on periodic review on aged receivables and assessment on recoverability of these receivables;– We tested, on a sample basis, the accuracy of ageing profile on trade receivables by checking to the underlying invoices; and– We tested subsequent settlement of trade receivables balances. Where settlement had not been received subsequent to the year end for those unprovided aged receivables beyond the credit period as at year end, we obtained management's assessment on the recoverability of these trade receivables and corroborated explanations with historical settlement pattern and correspondence with the relevant customers.– On a sample basis, we selected the material long aged receivables and discussed with the relevant customers to understand the status of the construction projects and the reasons for these receivables being unsettled. We found no material issue in relation to the application of judgement and estimates adopted by management in determining the provision for impairment of trade and retention receivables.

Other Information

The directors of the Company are responsible for the other information. The other information comprises all of the information included in the annual report other than the consolidated financial statements and our auditor's report thereon.

Our opinion on the consolidated financial statements does not cover the other information and we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the consolidated financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the consolidated financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated.

If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact. We have nothing to report in this regard.

Responsibilities of Directors and Those Charged with Governance for the Consolidated Financial Statements

The directors of the Company are responsible for the preparation of the consolidated financial statements that give a true and fair view in accordance with HKFRSs issued by the HKICPA and the disclosure requirements of the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance, and for such internal control as the directors determine is necessary to enable the preparation of consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the consolidated financial statements, the directors are responsible for assessing the Group's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the directors either intend to liquidate the Group or to cease operations, or have no realistic alternative but to do so.

Those charged with governance are responsible for overseeing the Group's financial reporting process.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. We report our opinion solely to you, as a body, and for no other purpose. We do not assume responsibility towards or accept liability to any other person for the contents of this report. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with HKSAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these consolidated financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with HKSAs, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional scepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Group's internal control.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by the directors.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of the directors' use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Group's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the consolidated financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Group to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the consolidated financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the consolidated financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

- Obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence regarding the financial information of the entities or business activities within the Group to express an opinion on the consolidated financial statements. We are responsible for the direction, supervision and performance of the group audit. We remain solely responsible for our audit opinion.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

From the matters communicated with those charged with governance, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

The engagement partner on the audit resulting in this independent auditor's report is Ng Hiu Tung.

(b) New standards, interpretations and amendments to standards which are not yet effective (Continued)

The Group will apply the above new standards, interpretations and amendments to standards when they become effective. The Group is in the process of making an assessment of the impact of the above new standards, interpretations and amendments to standards.

HKFRS 9

HKFRS 9 “Financial instrument” addresses the classification, measurement and recognition of financial assets and liabilities. The complete version of HKFRS 9 was issued in September 2014. It replaces the guidance in HKAS 39 that relates to the classification and measurement of financial instruments.

HKFRS 9 retains but simplifies the mixed measurement model and establishes three primary measurement categories for financial assets: amortised cost, fair value through other comprehensive income and fair value through profit or loss. The basis of classification depends on the entity’s business model and the contractual cash flow characteristics of the financial asset. The new impairment model requires the recognition of impairment provisions based on expected credit losses rather than only incurred credit losses as is the case under HKAS 39.

It is not practicable to provide a reasonable estimate of the effect until the Group performs a detailed review. Other than the adoption of an expected credit losses impairment model and disclosure changes, adoption of HKFRS 9 is currently not expected to have a material impact on the consolidated financial statements of the Group.

HKFRS 15

HKFRS 15 “Revenue from contracts with customers” replaces the previous revenue standards HKAS 18 “Revenue” and HKAS 11 “Construction Contracts” and the related interpretations on revenue recognition. HKFRS 15 establishes a comprehensive framework for determining when to recognise revenue and how much revenue to recognise through a 5-step approach: (i) identify the contract(s) with customer; (ii) identify separate performance obligations in a contract; (iii) determine the transaction price; (iv) allocate transaction price to performance obligations; and (v) recognise revenue when performance obligation is satisfied. HKFRS 15 provides specific guidance on capitalisation of contract cost and license arrangements. It also includes a cohesive set of disclosure requirements about the nature, amount, timing and uncertainty of revenue and cash flows arising from the entity’s contracts with customers.

(b) New standards, interpretations and amendments to standards which are not yet effective (Continued)

Under HKFRS 15, revenue is recognised when the customer obtains control of the promised good or service in the contract. HKFRS 15 identifies three situations in which control of the promised good or service is regarded as being transferred over time:

- (i) When the customer simultaneously receives and consumes the benefits provided by the entity's performance, as the entity performs;
- (ii) When the entity's performance creates or enhances an asset (for example work in progress) that the customer controls as the asset is created or enhanced;
- (iii) When the entity's performance does not create an asset with an alternative use to the entity and the entity has an enforceable right to payment for performance completed to date.

The Group has assessed that its contracts with customers fulfil the criteria for recognising revenue over time under HKFRS 15. The adoption of HKFRS 15 may have an impact on the amount of revenue and contract cost recognised and the Group is not yet in the position to provide quantified information. The new standard is not expected to apply until the financial year ended 31 December 2018.

HKFRS 16

The Group is a lessee of various properties which are currently classified as operating leases. The current accounting policy of such leases and the Group's future operating lease commitments are set out in note 2.23 and note 23(a) to the consolidated financial statements, respectively.

(b) New standards, interpretations and amendments to standards which are not yet effective (Continued)

HKFRS 16 “Leases” addresses the definition of a lease, recognition and measurement of leases and establishes principles for reporting useful information to users of financial statements about the leasing activities of both lessees and lessors. HKFRS 16 provides new provisions for the accounting treatment of leases and will no longer allow lessees to recognise certain leases outside the consolidated balance sheet in the future. Instead, when the Group is the lessee, almost all leases must be recognised in the form of an asset (for the right-of-use) and a financial liability (for the payment obligation). The new standard will therefore result in an increase in assets and financial liabilities in the consolidated balance sheet to the Group upon initial adoption. As for the financial impact in the consolidated income statement, rental expenses will be replaced with straight-line depreciation expense on the right-of-use asset and interest expenses on the lease liability. The combination of the straight-line depreciation of the right-of-use asset and the effective interest rate method applied to the lease liability will result in a higher total charge to the consolidated income statement in the initial years of the lease, and a lower total charge during the latter part of the lease term.

The new standard is not expected to be applied until the financial year beginning on or after 1 January 2019.

2.2 Subsidiaries

Consolidation

Subsidiaries are all entities (including structured entities) over which the Group has control. The Group controls an entity when the Group is exposed to, or has rights to, variable returns from its involvement with the entity and has the ability to affect those returns through its power over the entity. Subsidiaries are consolidated from the date on which control is transferred to the Group. They are deconsolidated from the date that control ceases.

The Group applies the acquisition method to account for business combinations. The consideration transferred for the acquisition of a subsidiary is the fair values of the assets transferred, the liabilities incurred to the former owners of the acquiree and the equity interests issued by the Group. The consideration transferred includes the fair value of any asset or liability resulting from a contingent consideration arrangement. Identifiable assets acquired and liabilities and contingent liabilities assumed in a business combination are measured initially at their fair values at the acquisition date.

The Group recognises any non-controlling interest in the acquiree on an acquisition-by-acquisition basis. Non-controlling interests in the acquiree that are present ownership interests and entitle their holders to a proportionate share of the entity's net assets in the event of liquidation are measured at either fair value or the present ownership interests' proportionate share in the recognised amounts of the acquiree's identifiable net assets. All other components of non-controlling interests are measured at their acquisition date fair value, unless another measurement basis is required by HKFRS.

Acquisition-related costs are expensed as incurred.

The excess of the consideration transferred, the amount of any non-controlling interest in the acquiree and the acquisition-date fair value of any previous equity interest in the acquiree over the fair value of the identifiable net assets acquired is recorded as goodwill. If the total of consideration transferred, non-controlling interest recognised and previously held interest measured is less than the fair value of the net assets of the subsidiary acquired in the case of a bargain purchase, the difference is recognised directly in the profit or loss.

Intra-group transactions, balances and unrealised gains on transactions between group companies are eliminated. Unrealised losses are also eliminated when necessary, amounts reported by subsidiaries have been adjusted to confirm with the Group's accounting policies.

NOTES TO THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Disposal of subsidiaries

When the Group ceases to have control, any retained interest in the entity is re-measured to its fair value at the date when control is lost, with the change in carrying amount recognised in profit or loss. The fair value is the initial carrying amount for the purposes of subsequently accounting for the retained interest as an associate, joint venture or financial asset. In addition, any amounts previously recognised in other comprehensive income in respect of that entity are accounted for as if the Group had directly disposed of the related assets or liabilities. This may mean that amounts previously recognised in other comprehensive income are reclassified to the profit or loss.

2.3 Joint arrangements

Investments in joint arrangements are classified as either joint operations or joint ventures, depending on the contractual rights and obligations each investor has rather than the legal structure of the joint arrangement. For the joint arrangements that specify that the parties to the joint arrangements have rights to the assets and obligations to the liabilities relating to the joint arrangements, they are classified as joint operations. For the remaining joint arrangements, they are classified as joint ventures.

A joint venture is a type of joint arrangement whereby the parties that have joint control of the arrangement have rights to the net assets of the joint venture. Joint control is the contractually agreed sharing of control of an arrangement, which exists only when decisions about the relevant activities require unanimous consent of the parties sharing control. Joint ventures are accounted for using the equity basis of accounting.

Under the equity method of accounting, interests in joint ventures are initially recognised at cost and adjusted thereafter to recognise the Group's share of the post-acquisition profits or losses and movements in other comprehensive income. The Group's investments in joint ventures include goodwill identified on acquisition. Upon the acquisition of the ownership interest in a joint venture, any difference between the cost of the joint venture and the Group's share of the net fair value of the joint venture's identifiable assets and liabilities is accounted for as goodwill. When the Group's share of losses in a joint venture equals or exceeds its interests in the joint ventures (which includes any long-term interests that, in substance, form part of the Group's net investment in the joint ventures), the Group does not recognise further losses, unless it has incurred obligations or made payments on behalf of the joint ventures.

Unrealised gains on transactions between the Group and its joint ventures are eliminated to the extent of the Group's interest in the joint ventures. Unrealised losses are also eliminated unless the transaction provides evidence of an impairment of the asset transferred. Accounting policies of the joint ventures have been changed where necessary to ensure consistency with the policies adopted by the Group.

When a group entity undertakes its activities under joint operations, the Group as a joint operator recognises in relation to its interest in a joint operation:

- its assets, including share of any assets held jointly;
- its liabilities, including its share of any liabilities incurred jointly;
- its revenue from the sale of its share of the output arising from the joint operation;
- its share of the revenue from the sale of the output by the joint operation; and
- its expenses, including its share of any expenses incurred jointly.

The assets that the Group has the rights and liabilities that the Group has the obligations for, in relation to the joint operations, are recognised in the consolidated balance sheets on an accrual basis and classified according to the nature of the item. The share of expenses that the Group incurs and its share of income that it earns from the joint operations are included in the consolidated statement of comprehensive income.

2.4 Segment reporting

Operating segments are reported in a manner consistent with the internal reporting provided to the chief operating decision-maker. The chief operating decision-maker, who is responsible for allocating resources and assessing performance of the operating segments, has been identified as the executive directors that make strategic decisions.

2.5 Foreign currency translation

(a) Functional and presentation currency

Items included in the consolidated financial statements of each of the Group's entities are measured using the currency of the primary economic environment in which the entity operates (the "functional currency"). The consolidated financial statements are presented in HK$ which is the Company's functional and the Group's presentation currency.

(b) Transactions and balances

Foreign currency transactions are translated into the functional currency using the exchange rates prevailing at the dates of the transactions or valuation where items are re-measured. Foreign exchange gains and losses resulting from the settlement of such transactions and from the translation at year end exchange rates of monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies are recognised in the consolidated statement of comprehensive income.

Foreign exchange gains and losses that relate to borrowings and cash and cash equivalents are presented in the consolidated statement of comprehensive income within 'finance income or expenses'. All other foreign exchange gains and losses are presented in the consolidated statement of comprehensive income within 'administrative expenses'.

(c) Group companies

The results and financial position of all the Group entities (none of which has the currency of a hyper-inflationary economy) that have a functional currency different from the presentation currency are translated into the presentation currency as follows:

- assets and liabilities for each balance sheet presented are translated at the closing exchange rate at the date of that balance sheet;
- income and expenses for each statement of comprehensive income are translated at average exchange rates (unless this average is not a reasonable approximation of the cumulative effect of the rates prevailing on the transaction dates, in which case income and expenses are translated at the rate on the dates of the transactions); and
- all resulting exchange differences are recognised as in other comprehensive income.

2 Summary of significant accounting policies (Continued)

2.6 Plant and equipment

Plant and equipment are stated at historical cost less accumulated depreciation and accumulated impairment. Historical cost includes expenditure that is directly attributable to the acquisition of the items.

Subsequent costs are included in the assets' carrying amount or recognised as a separate asset, as appropriate, only when it is probable that future economic benefits associated with the item will flow to the Group and the cost of the item can be measured reliably. The carrying amount of the replaced part is derecognised. All other repairs and maintenance are charged in the consolidated statement of comprehensive income during the financial period in which they are incurred.

Depreciation of both owned and leased plant and equipment is calculated using the straight-line method to allocate their costs to their residual values over the estimated useful lives, as follows:

Vessels	20 years
Machinery and equipment	3-10 years
Furniture and fixtures	5 years
Motor vehicles	5 years
Office equipment	3 years

The assets' residual values and useful lives are reviewed, and adjusted if appropriate, at the end of each reporting period.

Gains or losses on disposals are determined by comparing proceeds with carrying amount and are recognised in the consolidated statement of comprehensive income.

2.7 Impairment of non-financial assets

Assets that are subject to depreciation or amortisation are reviewed for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount may not be recoverable. An impairment loss is recognised for the amount by which the asset's carrying amount exceeds its recoverable amount. The recoverable amount is the higher of an asset's fair value less costs to sell and value in use. For the purposes of assessing impairment, assets are grouped at the lowest levels for which there are separately identifiable cash flows (cash-generating units). Non-financial assets other than goodwill that suffered an impairment are reviewed for possible reversal of the impairment at each reporting date.

2.8 Financial assets

The Group classifies its financial assets as loans and receivables. The classification depends on the purpose for which the financial assets were acquired. Management determines the classification of its financial assets at initial recognition.

Loans and receivables are non-derivative financial assets with fixed or determinable payments that are not quoted in an active market. They are included in current assets, except for the amounts that are settled or expected to be settled more than 12 months after the end of the reporting period. These are classified as non-current assets.

Regular way purchases and sales of financial assets are recognised on the trade-date – the date on which the Group commits to purchase or sell the asset. Loans and receivables are initially recognised at fair value plus transaction costs. They are derecognised when the rights to receive cash flows have expired or have been transferred and the Group has transferred substantially all risks and rewards of ownership. Loans and receivables are subsequently carried at amortised cost using the effective interest method.

2.9 Offsetting financial instruments

Financial assets and liabilities are offset and the net amount reported in the balance sheet when there is a legally enforceable right to offset the recognised amounts and there is an intention to settle on a net basis or realise the asset and settle the liability simultaneously. The legally enforceable right must not be contingent on future events and must be enforceable in the normal course of business and in the event of default, insolvency or bankruptcy of the Company or the counterparty.

2.10 Impairment of financial assets

The Group assesses at the end of each reporting period whether there is objective evidence that a financial asset or group of financial assets is impaired. A financial asset or a group of financial assets is impaired and impairment losses are incurred only if there is objective evidence of impairment as a result of one or more events that occurred after the initial recognition of the asset (a 'loss event') and that loss event (or events) has an impact on the estimated future cash flows of the financial asset or group of financial assets that can be reliably estimated.

Evidence of impairment may include indications that the debtors or a group of debtors is experiencing significant financial difficulty, default or delinquency in interest or principal payments, the probability that they will enter bankruptcy or other financial reorganisation, and where observable data indicate that there is a measurable decrease in the estimated future cash flows, such as changes in arrears or economic conditions that correlate with defaults.

2.10 Impairment of financial assets (Continued)

For loans and receivables, the amount of the loss is measured as the difference between the asset's carrying amount and the present value of estimated future cash flows (excluding future credit losses that have not been incurred) discounted at the financial asset's original effective interest rate. The carrying amount of the asset is reduced and the amount of the loss is recognised in the consolidated statement of comprehensive income. If a loan has a variable interest rate, the discount rate for measuring any impairment loss is the current effective interest rate determined under the contract. As a practical expedient, the Group may measure impairment on the basis of an instrument's fair value using an observable market price.

If, in a subsequent period, the amount of the impairment loss decreases and the decrease can be related objectively to an event occurring after the impairment was recognised (such as an improvement in the debtor's credit rating), the reversal of the previously recognised impairment loss is recognised in the consolidated statement of comprehensive income.

2.11 Trade and other receivables

Trade receivables are amounts due from customers in the ordinary course of business. If collection of trade and other receivable is expected in one year or less (or in the normal operating cycle of the business if longer), they are classified as current assets. If not, they are presented as non-current assets.

Trade and other receivables are recognised initially at fair value and subsequently measured at amortised cost using the effective interest method, less provision for impairment. A provision for impairment of trade and other receivables is established when there is objective evidence that the Group will not be able to collect all amounts due according to the original terms of the receivables. Significant financial difficulties of the debtors, probability that the debtor will enter bankruptcy or financial reorganisation, and default or delinquency in payments are considered indicators that the trade receivable is impaired. The amount of the provision is the difference between the asset's carrying amount and the present value of estimated future cash flows, discounted at the original effective interest rate. The carrying amount of the assets is reduced through the use of a provision account, and the amount of the loss is recognised in the consolidated statement of comprehensive income within "administrative expenses". When a trade receivable is uncollectible, it is written off against the allowance account for trade receivables. Subsequent recoveries of amounts previously written off are credited against "administrative expenses" in the consolidated statement of comprehensive income.

2.12 Construction contracts

When the outcome of a construction contract can be estimated reliably and it is probable that the contract will be profitable, contract revenue is recognised over the period of the contract by reference to the stage of completion. Contract costs are recognised as expenses by reference to the stage of completion of the contract activity at the end of the reporting period. When it is probable that total contract costs will exceed total contract revenue, the expected loss is recognised as an expense immediately.

When the outcome of a construction contract cannot be estimated reliably, contract revenue is recognised only to the extent of contract costs incurred that are likely to be recoverable.

Variations in contract work, claims and incentive payments are included in contract revenue to the extent that may have been agreed with the customer and are capable of being reliably measured.

The Group uses the “percentage-of-completion method” to determine the appropriate amount of revenue to recognise in a given period. The stage of completion is measured by reference to work performed to date as a percentage of total contract value.

On the consolidated balance sheet, the Group reports the net contract position for each contract as either an asset or a liability. A contract represents an asset where costs incurred plus recognised profits (less recognised losses) exceed progress billings; a contract represents a liability where the opposite is the case. Progress billings not yet paid by customers and retention receivables are included in current assets as the Group expects to realise these within its normal operating cycle.

2 Summary of significant accounting policies (Continued)

2.13 Cash and cash equivalents

In the consolidated statement of cash flows, cash and cash equivalents include cash at bank and deposits held at call with banks with original maturity of three months or less.

2.14 Share capital

Ordinary shares are classified as equity.

Incremental costs directly attributable to the issue of new shares are shown in equity as a deduction, net of tax, from the proceeds.

2.15 Trade and other payables

Trade payables are obligations to pay for goods or services that have been acquired in the ordinary course of business from suppliers. Trade payables are classified as current liabilities if payment is due within one year or less (or in the normal operating cycle of the business if longer). If not, they are presented as non-current liabilities.

Trade and other payables are recognised initially at fair value and subsequently measured at amortised cost using the effective interest method.

2.16 Borrowings

Borrowings are recognised initially at fair value, net of transaction costs incurred. Borrowings are subsequently carried at amortised cost; any difference between the proceeds (net of transaction costs) and the redemption value is recognised in the consolidated statement of comprehensive income over the period of the borrowings using the effective interest method.

Borrowings are classified as current liabilities unless the Group has an unconditional right to defer settlement of the liability for at least twelve months after the end of reporting period.

2 Summary of significant accounting policies (Continued)

2.17 Borrowing costs

General and specific borrowing costs directly attributable to the acquisition, construction or production of qualifying assets, which are assets that necessarily take a substantial period of time to get ready for their intended use or sale, are added to the cost of those assets, until such time as the assets are substantially ready for their intended use or sale.

All other borrowing costs are recognised in the consolidated statement of comprehensive income in the period in which they are incurred.

2.18 Current and deferred income tax

The income tax expense or credit for the period is the tax payable on the current period's taxable income based on the applicable income tax rate for each jurisdiction adjusted by changes in deferred tax assets and liabilities attributable to temporary differences and to unused tax losses.

(a) Current income tax

The current income tax charge is calculated on the basis of the tax laws enacted or substantively enacted at the end of the reporting period in the places where the Company's subsidiaries and associate operate and generate taxable income. Management periodically evaluates positions taken in tax returns with respect to situations in which applicable tax regulation is subject to interpretation. It establishes provisions where appropriate on the basis of amounts expected to be paid to the tax authorities.

(b) Deferred income tax

Deferred income tax is provided, using the liability method, on temporary differences arising between the tax bases of assets and liabilities and their carrying amounts in the consolidated financial statements. However, deferred tax liabilities are not recognised if they arise from the initial recognition of goodwill. Deferred income tax is also not accounted for if it arises from initial recognition of an asset or liability in a transaction other than a business combination that at the time of the transaction affects neither accounting nor taxable profit or loss. Deferred income tax is determined using tax rates (and laws) that have been enacted or substantially enacted by the end of the reporting period and are expected to apply when the related deferred income tax asset is realised or the deferred income tax liability is settled.

Deferred tax assets are recognised only if it is probable that future taxable amounts will be available to utilise those temporary differences and losses.

Deferred tax liabilities and assets are not recognised for temporary differences between the carrying amount and tax bases of investments in foreign operations where the Company is able to control the timing of the reversal of the temporary differences and it is probable that the differences will not reverse in the foreseeable future.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are offset when there is a legally enforceable right to offset current tax assets and liabilities and when the deferred tax balances relate to the same taxation authority. Current tax assets and tax liabilities are offset where the entity has a legally enforceable right to offset and intends either to settle on a net basis, or to realise the asset and settle the liability simultaneously.

Current and deferred tax is recognised in consolidated statement of comprehensive income, except to the extent that it relates to items recognised in other comprehensive income or directly in equity. In this case, the tax is also recognised in other comprehensive income or directly in equity, respectively.

Companies within the Group may be entitled to claim special tax deductions for investments in qualifying assets or in relation to qualifying expenditure. The Group accounts for such allowances as tax credits, which means that the allowance reduces income tax payable and current tax expense. A deferred tax asset is recognised for unclaimed tax credits that are carried forward as deferred tax assets.

2.19 Employee benefits

(a) Employee leave entitlements

Employee entitlements to annual leave are recognised when they accrue to employees. A provision is made for the estimated liability for annual leave as a result of services rendered by employees up to the balance sheet date.

Employee entitlements to sick leave and maternity or paternity leaves are not recognised until the time of leave.

(b) Retirement benefits

The Group operates defined contribution plans and pays contributions to publicly or privately administered pension insurance plans on a mandatory, contractual or voluntary basis. The Group has no further payment obligations once the contributions have been paid. The contributions are recognised as employee benefit expenses when they are due. Prepaid contributions are recognised as an asset to the extent that a cash refund or a reduction in the future payments is available.

(c) Termination benefits

Termination benefits are payable when employment is terminated by the Group before the normal retirement date, or whenever an employee accepts voluntary redundancy in exchange for these benefits. The Group recognises termination benefits at the earlier of the following dates: (a) when the Group can no longer withdraw the offer of those benefits; and (b) when the entity recognises costs for a restructuring that is within the scope of HKAS 37 and involves the payment of termination benefits. In the case of an offer made to encourage voluntary redundancy the termination benefits are measured based on the number of employees expected to accept the offer. Benefits falling due more than twelve months after balance sheet date are discounted to present value.

2.20 Provisions

Provisions are recognised when the Group has a present legal or constructive obligation as a result of past events; it is probable that an outflow of resources will be required to settle the obligation; and the amount can be reliably estimated. Provisions are not recognised for future operating losses.

Where there are a number of similar obligations, the likelihood that an outflow will be required in settlement is determined by considering the class of obligations as a whole. A provision is recognised even if the likelihood of an outflow with respect to any one item included in the same class of obligations may be small.

Provisions are measured at the present value of the expenditures expected to be required to settle the obligation using a pre-tax rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the obligation. The increase in the provision due to passage of time is recognised as interest expense.

2 Summary of significant accounting policies (Continued)

2.21 Revenue recognition

Revenue comprises the fair value of the consideration received or receivable for the sale of goods and services in the ordinary course of the Group's activities. The Group recognises revenue when the amount of revenue can be reliably measured, when it is probable that future economic benefits will flow to the entity and when specific criteria have been met. Revenue is shown net of sales tax, returns, rebates and discounts and after eliminating sales within the Group.

Revenue from construction contracts is recognised based on the stage of completion of the contracts as detailed in note 2.12 above.

Rental income from vessel chartering is recognised based on the straight-line basis over the lease terms.

Trading of vessels is recognised when the goods are delivered and the risks and rewards of ownership have been passed to the customers.

2.22 Interest income

Interest income is recognised using the effective interest method. When a loan and receivable is impaired, the Group reduces the carrying amount to its recoverable amount, being the estimated future cash flow discounted at the original effective interest rate of the instrument, and continues unwinding the discount as interest income. Interest income on impaired loans and receivables is recognised using the original effective interest rate.

2.23 Operating leases

Leases in which a significant portion of the risks and rewards of ownership are retained by the lessors are classified as operating leases. Payments made under operating leases, net of any incentives received from the lessors are charged to the consolidated statement of comprehensive income on a straight-line basis over the period of the lease.

2.24 Dividend distribution

Dividend distribution to the Company's shareholders is recognised as a liability in the Group's and Company's consolidated financial statements in the period in which the dividends are approved by the Company's shareholders or directors, where appropriate.

2 Summary of significant accounting policies (Continued)

2.25 Contingent liabilities

A contingent liability is a possible obligation that arises from past events and whose existence will only be confirmed by the occurrence or non-occurrence of one or more uncertain future events not wholly within the control of the Group. It can also be a present obligation arising from past events that is not recognised because it is not probable that outflow of economic resources will be required or the amount of obligation cannot be measured reliably.

A contingent liability is not recognised but is disclosed in the notes to the consolidated financial statements. When a change in the probability of an outflow occurs so that outflow is probable, they will then be recognised as a provision.

3 Financial risk management

3.1 Financial risk factors

The Group's activities expose it to a variety of financial risk: market risk (including foreign exchange risk and cash flow interest rate risk), credit risk and liquidity risk. The Group's overall risk management programme focuses on the unpredictability of the financial markets and seeks to minimise potential adverse effects on the Group's financial performance.

Risk management is carried out under policies approved by the directors of the Company. The Directors provide principles for an overall risk management, as well as policies covering specific areas.

(a) Market risk

(i) Foreign exchange risk

Foreign exchange risk arises from future commercial transactions and recognised assets and liabilities which are denominated in a currency that is not the Company's functional currency.

The Group's transactions are mainly denominated in HK$, US$, Indonesia Rupiah ("IDR"), Renminbi ("RMB"), Malaysian Ringgit ("MYR") and Macao Patacas ("MOP"). The majority of assets and liabilities are denominated in HK$, US$, IDR and MOP, and there are no significant assets and liabilities denominated in other currencies. The Group is subject to foreign exchange rate risk arising from future commercial transactions and recognised assets and liabilities which are denominated in a currency other than HK$, US$, MYR or MOP, which are the functional currencies of the major operating companies within the Group. The Group currently does not hedge its foreign currency exposure.

As HK$ is pegged to US$, management believes that the exchange rate risk for translations between HK$ and US$ do not have material impact to the Group. Management considered that the foreign exchange risk for MOP is minimal since exchange rate fluctuation was minimal.

At 31 December 2017, if RMB had weakened/strengthened by 5% against the HK$ with all other variables held constant, post-tax profit for the year would have been approximately HK$1,181,000 (2016: HK$353,000 lower/higher) higher/lower, mainly as a result of the foreign exchange difference on translation of RMB denominated cash and cash equivalents, trade and retention payables and accruals and other payables.

At 31 December 2017, if IDR had weakened/strengthened by 5% against the HK$ with all other variables held constant, post-tax profit for the year would have been approximately HK$360,000 (2016: HK$1,274,000) lower/higher, mainly as a result of the foreign exchange difference on translation of IDR denominated cash and cash equivalents, trade and retention payables and accruals and other payables.

At 31 December 2017, if MYR had weakened/strengthened by 5% against the HK$ with all other variables held constant, post-tax profit for the year would have been approximately HK$232,000 (2016: HK$nil) higher/lower, mainly as a result of the foreign exchange difference on translation of MYR dominated cash and cash equivalents, trade and retention payables and accruals and other payables.

(ii) Cash flow interest rate risk

The Group is exposed to interest rate risk as borrowings are carried at variable rates. It is the Group's policy to maintain its borrowings subject to floating rates, and accordingly, the Group has not used any interest rate swaps to hedge its exposure to interest rate risk.

As at 31 December 2017, if the interest rates on borrowings had been 100 basis-points higher/lower with all other variables held constant, pre-tax profit for the year would be HK$1,714,000 (2016: HK$682,000) higher/lower, mainly as a result of higher/lower interest expense on floating rate borrowings.

(b) Credit risk

The Group is exposed to credit risk in relation to its cash and cash equivalents, trade and retention receivables, deposits and other receivables, and amounts due from related companies and amount due from a director. The Group's maximum exposure to credit risk is the carrying amounts of these financial assets.

For the year ended 31 December 2017, 79.7% (2016: 88.7%) of the Group's revenue was derived from its top five customers. As at 31 December 2017, the Group had concentration of credit risk as 84.2% (2016: 96.2%) of the total trade receivables were due from the Group's five (2016: three) customers.

Top five customers mainly include subsidiaries of state-owned enterprises, government authority and other construction companies. To manage this risk, management has monitoring procedures to ensure that follow-up action is taken to recover overdue debts. In addition, management reviews regularly the recoverable amount of each individual trade and retention receivable to ensure that adequate impairment provision is made for the irrecoverable amounts.

The credit risk on deposits with bank and amounts due from related companies are limited because deposits are in banks with sound credit ratings and good payment history. Management does not expect any loss from non-performance by related companies.

(c) Liquidity risk

Liquidity risk refers to the risk that an entity will encounter difficulty in meeting obligations associated with financial liabilities that are settled by delivering cash or another financial assets.

Prudent liquidity risk management implies maintaining sufficient cash and bank balances. The Group's liquidity risk is further mitigated through the availability of financing through its own cash resources and the availability of banking facilities to meet its financial commitments. In the opinion of the directors, the Group does not have any significant liquidity risk.

The table below analyses the Group's financial liabilities into relevant maturity groupings based on the remaining period at the balance sheet date to the contractual maturity date. The amounts disclosed in the table are the contractual undiscounted cash flows (including interests payments computed using contractual rates, or if floating, based on the current rates at the year end dates during the year). Where the loan agreement contains a repayable on demand clause which gives the lender the unconditional right to call the loan at any time, the amounts repayable are classified in the earliest time bracket in which the lender could demand repayment. The maturity analysis for other borrowings is prepared based on the scheduled repayment dates. Balances due within 12 months equal their carrying balances, as the impact of discounting is not significant.

3.2 Capital risk management

The Group's objectives when managing capital are to safeguard the Group's ability to continue as a going concern in order to provide returns for shareholders and benefits for other stakeholders and to maintain an optimal capital structure to reduce the cost of capital.

The capital structure of the Group consists of equity, amount due to a director and borrowings. In order to maintain or adjust the capital structure, the Group may adjust the amount of dividends paid to shareholders, return capital to shareholders, issue new shares or sell assets to reduce borrowings. The Group monitors capital on the basis of debt to equity ratio. The debt to equity ratio is calculated as net debt divided by total equity. Net debt is calculated as total borrowings less cash and cash equivalents, time deposits and pledged bank deposits. The net cash position as at 31 December 2017 and 2016 was resulted from the Group's operation. The debt to equity ratios as at 31 December 2017 and 2016 are as follows:

	2017 HK$'000	2016 HK$'000

NOTES TO THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

4 Critical accounting estimates and judgements

Estimates and judgements are continually evaluated and are based on historical experience and other factors, including expectations of future events that are believed to be reasonable under the circumstances.

The Group makes estimates and assumptions concerning the future. The resulting accounting estimates will, by definition, seldom equal the related actual results. The estimates and assumptions that have a significant risk of causing a material adjustment to the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities within the next financial year are addressed below.

(a) Construction contracts

The Group reviews and revises the estimates of contract revenue, contract costs, variation orders and contract claims prepared for each construction contract as the contract progresses. Budgeted construction costs are prepared by the management on the basis of quotations from time to time provided by the major contractors, suppliers or vendors involved and the experience of the management. In order to keep the budget accurate and up-to-date, management conducts periodic reviews of the budgets of contracts by comparing the budgeted amounts to the actual amounts incurred. Such significant estimate may have impact on the profit recognised in each period.

In addition, significant judgement is required to assess the recoverability of contract costs incurred as a result of difference between the amount applied to and the amount certified by the main contractor.

The Group recognised its contract revenue according to the percentage of work performed to date of the individual contract of construction works as a percentage of total contract value. Because of the nature of the activity undertaken in construction contracts, the date at which the contract activity is entered into and the date when the activity is completed usually fall into different accounting period. The Group reviews and revised the estimates of contract revenue, contract costs, variation orders and contract claims prepared for each construction contract as the contract in progress. Management regularly reviews the progress of the contracts and the corresponding costs of the contract revenue.

NOTES TO THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

4 Critical accounting estimates and judgements (Continued)

(b) Income taxes

The Group is subject to income taxes in Hong Kong and certain overseas taxes. Significant judgement is required in determining the provision for income taxes. There are many transactions and calculations for which the ultimate tax determination is uncertain. The Group recognises liabilities for anticipated tax audit issues based on estimates of whether additional taxes will be due. Where the final tax outcome of these matters is different from the amounts that were initially recorded, such differences will impact the current and deferred income tax assets and liabilities in the period in which such determination is made.

Deferred income tax assets relating to certain temporary differences and tax losses are recognised when management considers it is probable that future taxable profit will be available against which the temporary differences or tax losses can be utilised. Where the expectation is different from the original estimate, such differences will impact the recognition of deferred income tax assets and income tax expense in the periods in which such estimate is changed.

(c) Impairment of plant and equipment

The Group's major operating assets represent machinery and equipment. Management performs review for impairment of the plant and equipment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amounts of these assets may not be recoverable.

Management considered there was no impairment indicator of machinery and equipment during the year as these assets were used for profitable construction projects, and there is a strong demand of these plant and equipment in the second hand market.

(d) Impairment of trade and retention receivables

Management determines the provision for impairment of trade and retention receivables based on the credit history of customers and the current market condition by business segment. Significant judgment is exercised on the assessment of the collectability of receivables from each customer. In making the judgment, management considers a wide range of factors such as results of follow-up procedures, customer payment trends including subsequent payments and customers' financial positions. If the financial conditions of the customers of the Group were to deteriorate, resulting in an impairment of their ability to make payments, additional allowances may be required. The final outcome of the recoverability of these receivables will impact the amount of impairment required.

Under the rules of the MPF Scheme, the employer and its employees in Hong Kong are each required to contribute 5% of the employees’ gross earnings with a ceiling of HK$1,500 per month.

- (b) Indonesia income tax is charged through a system of withholding taxes. Companies are required to withhold final income tax for construction works performance and interest income from bank deposits. For the year ended 31 December 2017, income tax has been provided at the rate of 3% (2016: 3%) of the construction revenue and 20% (2016: 20%) of the interest income from bank deposits.
- (c) In performing the works of a certain project in Indonesia, Hong Kong River Engineering Company Limited (“HKR”), a wholly owned subsidiary of the Company, was exposed to branch profits tax (“BPT”) in Indonesia on the basis that HKR was a non-resident carrying out business through a permanent establishment in Indonesia. According to Article 5 of the double taxation agreement between Indonesia and Hong Kong (“DTA”), HKR was regarded as having a permanent establishment in Indonesia since the project involved provision of construction services in Indonesia by HKR exceeding 183 days. During the course of that project between 2011 and 2015, HKR failed to pay branch profit tax in accordance with the Income Tax Law in Indonesia and the DTA, and the aggregate amount of branch profits tax was approximately HK$1,200,000.

The directors has sought for legal advice and the Indonesia legal advisor of the Group was of the opinion that the Indonesia regulation does not provide for and HKR is not in a position to rectify the violation to the Construction Licences Requirement by applying for the required registration retrospectively. Consequently, in the absence of business registration, a non-resident in Indonesia cannot proceed with the application of tax registration and will not have a tax identity to perform tax reporting. As such, HKR has not performed BPT reporting and is not in a position to perform BPT reporting retrospectively.

Notwithstanding that HKR cannot voluntarily perform business registration and tax registration retrospectively, the Directorate General of Taxes of Indonesia (“DGT”) can send HKR an official assessment if the DGT has sufficient information to determine that the Indonesia BPT liability exists. The statutory time bar for DGT to issue a tax assessment is five years from the last date of the relevant tax year and the maximum tax penalties on late reporting is 48%. The maximum amount of the Indonesia BPT including penalty payable by HKR will be approximately HK$1,113,000 as at 31 December 2017 (2016: HK$1,320,000).

No provision has been made in the consolidated financial statements. The directors are of the view that the risk that the DGT has sufficient information to issue an official assessment notice and levy maximum penalty thereon is minimal. Furthermore, the controlling shareholders have agreed to indemnify the Group for any liability arising from the official assessment and penalty notice issued by the DGT.

- (d) Macao complementary income tax has been provided at the rate of 12% (2016: 12%) on the estimated assessable profit for the year.
- (e) Malaysia corporate income tax has been provided at the rate of 24% (2016: N/A) on the estimated assessable profit for the year.

The tax on the Group's profit before income tax differs from the theoretical amount that would arise using the tax rate of Hong Kong as follows:

	2017 HK$'000	2016 HK$'000
Profit before income tax	67,177	82,085
